Harborside Series Prevost Harbor Series Home | Priced at $650,000

Classic-casual styling and a relaxing wrap-around front porch belie high-level details and expanded living options within this largest San Juan Passage home. A cozy den adds an extra getaway adjacent to the open living-dining-kitchen great room—all with nine-foot ceilings and broad views toward the water and islands. Choose a main-level master for single-floor living or sunny second-floor master with secluded home office or study. High-quality finishes, appliances, and amenities throughout, plus sustainable green building practices for energy efficiency and respect for our natural neighbors.

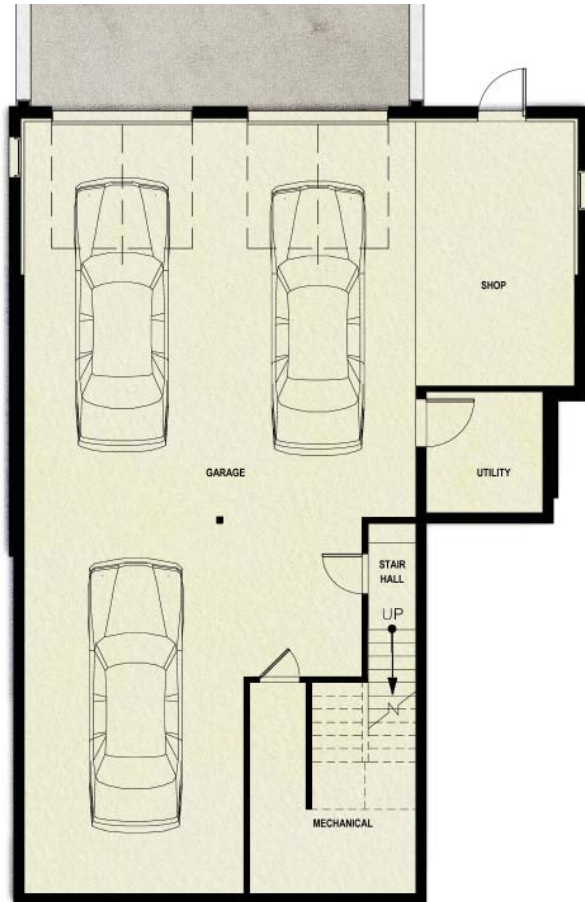

- Open living-dining-kitchen great room with nine-foot ceilings, gas fireplace, double French doors to view deck
- Kitchen with granite counters, pantry, island and dining bar
- Optional first- or second-floor master suite with sitting areas and extra-large walk-in closet or dressing area
- Two guest or second bedrooms; one with water view, one upper level private deck
- Three full baths plus a powder room on the main level
- Extra-large, three-car garage with work space for shop, gardening, storage, or more
